

No Love, No Nothin'

Marlene Dietrich

No love, no nothin'
Until my baby comes home
No sir, no nothin'
As long as baby may roam

I promised him to wait for him
'Till even Hades froze
I'm lonesome heaven knows
But what I said still goes

No love, no nothin'
And that's a promise I'll keep
No fun with no one
I'm getting plenty of sleep

My heart's on strike
And though it's like
An empty honeycomb
No love, no sir
No nothin' 'till my baby comes home

No love, no nothin'
Until my baby comes home
No sir, no nothin'
As long as baby may roam

I promised him to wait for him
'Till even Hades froze
I'm lonesome heaven knows
But what I said still goes

No love, no nothin'
And that's a promise I'll keep
No fun with no one
I'm getting plenty of sleep

My heart's on strike
And though it's like
An empty honeycomb
No love, no nothin', no baby, no sleep
No nothin' 'till my baby comes home
Why don't you come home, baby?
