

You've Got That Look

Marlene Dietrich

All I do, is dine with'm
And split a pint of wine with'm
Respectable as can be...
Yet here's what they say to me...

You've got that look,
That look that leaves me weak
You with your eyes across the table technique

You've got that look,
That look between the lines
You with your let's get more than friendly designs

I should be brave and say, "Let's have no more of it!"
But oh what's the use when you know...I love it!

You'll only kill my will before I speak
So turn on that low left hook that look that leaves me weak

You've got that look,
That look that leaves me weak
You with your eyes across the table technique

You got that look,
That look between the lines
You with your let's get more than friendly designs

I should be brave and say, "Let's have no more of it!"
But oh what's the use when you know...I love it!

You'll only kill my will before I speak
So turn on that low left hook that look that leaves me weak!
