

Questions

Marlisa

Will I ever touch the sky
Will I ever know how it feels to fly
Storms around me never settle
I am lost with the thunder

I'm not sure what I'm gonna do just yet
Or what will happen next
No solution, no escape
Don't know if I can make a step
What the future holds
Confused as to where I'll go
Set myself free
Uncertainty keeps killing me

Why is everything unclear
And nothing ever appears
I just have so many questions
That are left unanswered, oh

So give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign

Will I ever know the truth
Will I ever realise the reason too
Trapped in my own shadows
Where I go they follow

I'm not sure what I'm gonna do just yet
Or what will happen next
No solution, no escape
Don't know if I can make a step
What the future holds
Confused as to where I'll go
Set myself free
Uncertainty keeps killing me

Why is everything unclear
And nothing ever appears
I just have so many questions
That are left unanswered, oh

So give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign

Will I fall
Or will I open another door
Where to go
Lost in my own thoughts

Oh why don't you give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign
Oh why don't you give me a sign
