

Love Hate Interlude

Marlon Craft

You could hate me or love me
I hate social media but I love attention
Love that I'm smarter than you but I hate condescension
I love big results but I hate long investments
I hate social stratus but love bein' on the guest-list
I hate listenin' when you drag on, I love talkin' forever though
h
Actually it exhausts me and I hate bein' tired
I love New York with all my heart I hate the hate we require
I hate when I ain't lately inspired, I love when I get it back though
I hate cheese but I love pizza, true story
Hate gentrification but boy, do I love sushi burritos, I'll tel l ya
Love when you say you'll change, I hate that I don't believe ya
Hate pain but I love it's relievers
Hate hangovers, I love drinkin' though Hate when I can't turn my mind off but I love thinkin' though I love being critical but I hate, hate, hate, hate to be judged
Hate when I feel short of breath but I love bein' cutthroat Hate oppression but love feelin' like shit'll work out for me t hough
That little inkling of "that's fucked up, but that's not me bro
, damn"
That's fucked up, but that's not me though
I'm just bein' honest, see I hate a few parts of me, yo
I love myself but sometimes I hate who I could be though
I hate some individuals but I love all people
I love love, I hate evil
So you can hate me or love me
Shit, at least I'm me though
