

Unstoppable

Marlon Craft

Makin' no apologies in this fight against the monotony
I'm tryna open doors despite everyone that be knockin' me
They tryna stop my drive but I just let the lines block for me cause no one can belittle my words besides an apostrophe, nah
I won't stand for it, was taught to demand more
They call me underground because they scared what's in my Jansport Goin' in my bag on 'em tryna make somethin' last on 'em in a world where the present is bleak and the fuckin' past haunting
And all we have is future, seem like they ain't even know it
And ain't nobody invested, ironic, we all alone, shit
They bankin' on the lack of cooperation and thoughts complacent
Blinded by the greed but when we link is when the optics changin'
I'm from the land of we don't know you, we don't say much
City of ice stares so don't you slip on your way up
So best believe that on my own I'mma do what I gotta do
But I'm just sayin' shit, together, we'd be unstoppable

They said the path that I chose is a lonely road
I resigned and replied, I said, no, no, no
Go alone if I gotta, on my own
I ain't tryna be another soul lost on a road full of liars
Though I need you around just to steer me clear
Can't nobody else really hear me here
Go alone if I gotta, on my own, I ain't tryna go
Yeah, just tell me that I'm not alone

Fabricated illusions of half-elated confusion
I only wanna make love, harmony and music
Everything else, it is what it is, I try to be one with it
A blade of grass bendin' as a hurricane comes at it
I'm still standing, I don't need a stand-in cause I stand out
A stand-up man so if you frontin' homie, stand down
And we could have a standoff but ain't tryna take your hand off
Just so we could be distracted while corporations get scams off?
Oh no, no, yo I'm tellin' you don't push me Cause life is good but see it isn't everything it could be
And this sound is pure but yo it isn't everything it would be
I'm lookin' for those waves that sound like the sweetest nookie, oh Lord
Don't wan't be distant no more, I'm tryna tell you, I ain't tryna ride a wav e
I'm so sure that I could help you cause I could do it on my own better than a lot of dudes
But I'm just sayin' shit, together we'd be unstoppable

They said the path that I chose is a lonely road
I resigned and replied, I said, no, no, no
Go alone if I gotta, on my own
I ain't tryna be another soul lost on a road full of liars
Though I need you around just to steer me clear
Can't nobody else really hear me here
Go alone if I gotta on my own, I ain't tryna go
Yeah, just tell me that I'm not alone

We'll be, we'll be
Unstoppable
We'll be, we'll be
Unstoppable

We'll be, we'll be
Unstoppable
We'll be, we'll be
Unstoppable
