

Broken Reflection

Marmozets

I look in the mirror thinking is this the real me
So I smash it up hoping to see a better me
In a broken reflection don't believe in fake reality
That makes you think to much and makes you do stupid things like change you hair
And the clothes you wear

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

DON'T LIE TO ME!!

I know deep down we all hate the silly things we say and do
But we gotta learn we gotta learn to be the best we can be
We're gonna make it out
We're gonna break out
From this broken reflection

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

Get out, get out, get out
Get out, get out, get out
GET OUT, GET OUT, GET OUT

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection

So I scream and shout just be the best you can be
You can make it out your broken reflection
Broken reflection
