

Run With The Rhythm

Marmozets

Take your seats
Hear me speak
You're not alone
In everything

When the wind blows hard
You'll see, you'll see
When the wind blows hard
Don't weep, don't weep

So run with the rhythm
Run with your freedom
And run with everything
You still have left

I'm not a saint
Cause I feel pain
Far from home enough
And I've found hope

So run with the rhythm
Run with your freedom
And run with everything
You still have left
Run with the rhythm
Run with your freedom
And run with everything
You still have left

So run with the rhythm
Run with your freedom
And run with everything
You still have left
Run with the rhythm
Run with your freedom
And run with everything
You still have left
