

Jealousy Problems

Maroon 5

I don't wanna be jealous, no
You don't wanna be faded stone
I don't wanna be [?]
I don't wanna be

Don't you know I got jealousy problems?
Uh, I don't know how to solve them
Yeah, I'd rather be sitting rock bottom
Oh, yeah, and I know whatcha gonna say
They say I'm making no progress
But baby, I gotta be honest
I don't know if I'm ever gonna stop it, I know
That ain't whatcha wanted, girl

I know this behavior is beneath us both but I think the fucked up thing is how it brought us closer now
I know it's crazy, but I kinda like this dysfunction
I know you probably disagree, but I won't make assumptions
But let me tell you something, I really want to change
But that's impossible, 'cause bad habits, they stay
Bad habits just stay, stay, stay

Don't you know I got jealousy problems?
Uh, I don't know how to solve them
Yeah, I'd rather be sitting rock bottom
Oh, yeah, and I know whatcha gonna say
They say I'm making no progress
But baby, I gotta be honest
I don't know if I'm ever gonna stop it, I know
That ain't whatcha wanted, girl

I know you ain't gonna stay here forever
Sick of waiting for me to do better
And if I don't do what you want, then I
Know that it's probably goodbye
It's probably goodbye
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

Don't you know I got jealousy problems?
Uh, I don't know how to solve them
Yeah, I'd rather be sitting rock bottom
Oh, yeah, and I know whatcha gonna say
They say I'm making no progress
But baby, I gotta be honest
I don't know if I'm ever gonna stop it, I know
That ain't whatcha wanted, girl

Ooh-oooh
Ooh I, yeah
(That ain't whatcha wanted)
