

Funny Things

Marques Houston

My heart can't read your mind
If you don't say what you're thinking
Searching for truth between the lies
Still willing to try
Just gimme a reason
Tell me that I'm your number one
I wanna feel like I'm second to none
Whatever dreams you selling, you know I'm buying

You got me all in my head
Whispering, "Get back in bed"
Feels like I'm under a spell
I know you're bad for me

Funny things that we do, just for love
Crazy things that we do, just for love
Down on my knees, begging you, just for love
Crazy things that we do, just for love

It's hilarious
The way they stare at us
Find it funny, steady trying to compare to us
Do you find it amusing?
How far I'd go to prove it
To you
And you know what I spent to try to get you on my good side
Even tried to play the good guy for you
For you
Tell me that I'm your number one
I wanna feel like I'm second to none
Whatever dreams you selling, you know I'm buying

You got me all in my head
Whispering, "Get back in bed"
Feels like I'm under a spell
I know you're bad for me

Funny things that we do, just for love
Crazy things that we do, just for love
Down on my knees, begging you, just for love
Crazy things that we do, just for love
