You know that I called you about a thousand times but you keep on send me straight to voice mail and I know you see my name on your caller ID so why you playing games? I said I'm sorry

Can we put the past behind us Girl pick up the phone Tell me how can I build you trust
I admit it I was wrong Girl I need you love
I ain't asking for too much I gotta get to you but nothing seems to work, you still won't pick up Girl I know you're home and waiting by the phone but you're just too stubborn, it's time to let go Cause you know I love ya and I'm thinking of ya and I'm going to do right this time Cause we've been doing this too long Just to try to end it all
