

I Can Only Be Me

Mars Argo

Oh shit

Try to take my identity
And I'll just create a new one
Or maybe I'll just be myself
Whoever that is this week

And if I cut you out
I did that shit on purpose, uh-huh
So won't you please, pretty please
Stop trying to get a hold of me? Ah-ha

I can only be myself now
I can only be me
I can only be myself now
I can only be me

Try to take my identity
And I'll just create a new one
Or maybe I'll just be myself
Whoever that is this week

What you looking, what you looking at?
It's safe when what's worth saying
Got everybody saying
What you waiting for? Ah-ha

I can only be myself now
I can only be me
I can only be myself now
I can only be me
And I can only be myself now
I can only be me
I can only be myself now
I can only be me

Who said it isn't make-believe
When you can make yourself believe, believe anything?
And who said it wasn't meant to be
If I can't be without you anyway?

Try to take my identity
And I'll just create a new one
