

Seventeen

Ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh

When I was seventeen
I thought that I knew everything
I snuck out every week
And my dad would always follow me
To the party where I would be
And everyone was tripping
Ooh-ooh

When I was seventeen
My mom was always mad at me
I smoked a lot of weed
And my sister always told on me
I fell into a dream
And Mallori would read me stories

If everything I see is just a fantasy
And everything I dream is my actual reality
I've done way too many drugs in my twenties
Now I hide my own money from me
Ooh-ooh

When I was seventeen
I was always somewhere that a teenager should never be
But I was feeling free
And I guess I'm just lucky, maybe naïve
So come get high with me

If everything I see is just a fantasy
And everything I dream is my actual reality
I've done way too many drugs in my twenties
Now I hide my own money from me
Ooh-ooh

We are out there, you are out there
Love is out there, love is out there
We are out there, you are out there
Love is out there, love is out there
And I need you, but I don't know why
When I see you, I feel so alive
And I need you, but I don't know why
When I see you, I feel so alive

Ooh-ooh
Done way too many drugs in my twenties
Ooh-ooh
Done way too many drugs in my twenties
Ooh-ooh
Done way too many drugs in my twenties
Ooh-ooh
Done way too many drugs in my twenties
Ooh-ooh
