

Daddy's Little Girl

Marsha Ambrosius

I am daddy's little girl
I am daddy's little girl
Daddy's little girl
Daddy's little girl
So highly respected, in all so many ways,
I'm deeply respectful,
Because that's how I was raised!
You taught me how to dream,
Show me how to promise, promise I am,
I'm still your baby daughter,
You will always... my tears
And always be right there,
Even when you get on my last...
To all the daddy's on this day...
I love you with all my heart, oh!
From daddy's little girl!
