

Whatever It Takes

Marta Sánchez

I searched for a heart for so long
It always turned out to be so wrong
This modern day love is tragic
I never knew magic until you

Boy I wanna hold ya
And when the night is over i won't trade freedom just from promises

Whatever it takes
Whatever you need
I won't give up till you believe

Whatever it takes
I'm woman enough
And I'll give it all to win your love

My daddy he told me not to trust
He said there's a line between love an lust
And ever since then I've been confused
And my heart was blind till i saw you

Cause what i need is real love
It's what i always dreamed of I'd trade forever for a love like this

Whatever it takes
Whatever you need
I won't give up till you believe

Whatever it takes
I'm woman enough
And I'll give it all to win your love

Whatever it's takes
I'm ready to try
Searching for heaven in your eyes

Whatever it takes
I'll lay on the line
Whatever it takes to make you mine

Whatever it takes
Whatever you need
I won't give up till you believe

Whatever it takes
I'm woman enough
And I'll give it all to win your love

Whatever it's takes
I'm ready to try
Searching for heaven in your eyes

Whatever it takes
I'll lay on the line
Whatever it takes to make you mine
