

I been stuck on go
Never been a liar, this ain't no persona
I'ma let you know
That I'm unbothered, focused on these commas, no

This ain't a hobby, real ones around me yeah
Got Burberry on me, I know she want me
Like, woah there he goes
Look at him go ayy
Let 'em know that I...

Got like eight reasons why ain't nobody could compare
And if you turn it to the side that's how long I'ma be here
Now the pressure is applied, but I love it I don't care
I took this all right from my mind, and I made it to real life
And you see it (Yeah, yeah)
I ain't leaving (Yeah)
I got like eight reasons why
Ain't nobody could compare
I took this all right from my mind
And I made it to real life, yeah

In a whole different lane on my lonely
They be scrolling through my page watching closely
People saying that I changed, y'all don't know me
Y'all don't, y'all don't, ayy
They wanna know all of my tracks
How do they slap? How you do that?
I got the Bay and that's right on my back
She likes how I sing and I dabble in rap, hmm
All of that negative energy
Get that away
Just know that you ain't offending me, uh
I'm doing my thang

This ain't a hobby, real ones around me, yeah
Got Burberry on me, I know she want me
Like, woah there he goes, look at him go, ayy
Let em know that I...
