Marteen

Know you a freak in the morning
A freak in the evening (Just like me)
Yeah, you a bad lil' baby
That could satisfy me (Just for me)
Doesn't matter where we at type shit
'Cause my baby show up for me real quick, yeah
We be in the zone and everybody knows
That we don't give a damn about a thing

Waiting for your call anytime now
Know you got me fiendin' and you wrong for it
You gave me a taste want it all now
I know you feel the same
Yeah, I know you want it

I hit it more than one time (One time)
I can't stop when you talkin' like that
I see that look in your eyes (Your eyes)
And we going right back

Know you a freak in the morning
A freak in the evening (Just like me)
Yeah, you a bad lil' baby
That could satisfy me (Just for me)
Doesn't matter where we at type shit
'Cause my baby show up for me real quick
We be in the zone and everybody knows
That we don't give a damn about a thing

You know I mess with you the long way
And you know I got you always
When we do it, yeah, you know it ain't lightweight
She told me that she gonna do whatever I say
We be playing all the slaps up in my speaker speakers
Ain't no tellin' where this night is 'bout to lead us lead us
All I know is that when your around
Ain't no question that it's going down
Yeah, yeah

I hit it more than one time (One time)
I can't stop when you talking like that
I see that look in your eyes (Your eyes)
And we going right back

Know you a freak in the morning
A freak in the evening (Just like me)
Yeah, you a bad lil' baby
That could satisfy me (Just for me)
Doesn't matter where we at type shit
'Cause my baby show up for me real quick
We be in the zone and everybody knows
That we don't give a damn about a thing

Hit it three times like I'm really tryna hit a quota
Started from the back and then I go and flip you over
Ladies first, I'ma last, go until it's over
Lotta girls in my dm's but my chick is colder

But I don't even read 'em
Don't wanna make you worry
But when I met you shot my shot like I'm Steph Curry
Then I went and made you mine I was in a hurry
Knock it out fight night like I'm Tyson Fury, ayy
'Cause two times is not enough
And you know I mean what I say this is not a bluff
Put your hands behind your back, hope you got some cuffs
'Cause you know in more than one way I'm tryna lock it up (Yee)

Know you a freak in the morning
A freak in the evening (Just like me)
Yeah, you a bad lil' baby
That could satisfy me (Just for me)
Doesn't matter where we at type shit
