This Shit Sux

Marteen

Ayy
I guess that he meant more than me
It's obvious, yeah

I know we had our off days
I thought that we were always
Remember you would say it was gonna change
But it's hard to fake (Yuh)

This shit sucks (Yuh)
'Cause I wanna make it work, but it can't be love
'Cause if it was, you'd put me first
And I'll be fine all on my own
But this shit sucks (It does, yeah)

Everything that we did was a first for me (Yeah)
Didn't think that you could end up hurtin' me (No)
Didn't think that I would have uncertainties
Or have to make the choice to stay or leave

I know we had our off days
I thought that we were always
Remember you would say it was gonna change
But it's hard to fake (Damn)

This shit sucks (Yuh)
'Cause I wanna make it work, but it can't be love
'Cause if it was, you'd put me first
And I'll be fine all on my own
But this shit sucks (It does, yeah)

You almost had me believe
That I was in the wrong
You tried to flip it on me
Like I don't know what's goin' on
And there's something that got in the way, yeah
Everything don't feel the same, no
I hope you found what you're lookin' for (Damn)

This shit sucks (Alright)
'Cause I wanna make it work, but it can't be love
'Cause if it was, you'd put me first
And I'll be fine (I will, yeah) all on my own
But this shit sucks (It does, yeah)
Aw, yeah
