

Hollywood

Martin Jensen

Loving you just hurts so fucking good
Let you break my heart in Hollywood

Sad, but true, I'm on what I can't have
And fuck, that's you, baby
Nothing new, I guess it's a bad habit, what I do

Pull me through hell, go tear me into pieces
No way, can't have myself

Loving you just hurts so fucking good
Let you break my heart in Hollywood
I'd do it all again, boy, if I could
'Cause loving you just hurts so fucking good
Loving you just hurts so fucking good
Let you break my heart in Hollywood I'd do it all again, boy, if I could
'Cause loving you just hurts so fucking good

Oooh, 'cause loving you just hurts so fucking, hurts so fucking good
Oooh, 'cause loving you just hurts so fucking, hurts so fucking good

All my friends, ask me why I keep coming back for you, baby
Oh, I consent, for sort of kidding you up to someone new

Pull me through hell, go tear me into pieces
No way, can't have myself

Loving you just hurts so fucking good
Let you break my heart in Hollywood
I'd do it all again, boy, if I could
'Cause loving you just hurts so fucking good
Loving you just hurts so fucking good
Let you break my heart in Hollywood I'd do it all again, boy, if I could
'Cause loving you just hurts so fucking good

Oooh, 'cause loving you just hurts so fucking, hurts so fucking good
Oooh, 'cause loving you just hurts so fucking, hurts so fucking good
