

Reasons

Martin Jondo

Your reasons ain't reasons, so don't get us wrong
Season by season, you were holding us down
Don't come up with reasons, don't come along
We got one million reasons, one is blood on the ground

The enemy of my enemy is my friend
Where did it start Lord, where will it end
Silver and gold taking over control
A fancy-dress ball people playing their role So who are you fighting if you are just fighting for yourself
Where are your running if you are just running 'round
The role you are playing is playing you pretty well
You better wake up before you are a story which they tell

Your reasons ain't reasons, so don't get us wrong
Season by season, you were holding us down
Don't come up with reasons, don't come along
We got one million reasons, one is blood on the ground

Life is a circle we are going on and on The bridges you built are the ones you'll burn down
Today you're here and tomorrow you are gone
Wanna be the leader in the house of the rising sun
An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth
Silly and blind, deaf and confused
It's raining blood and there is ash in the sky
You 're heading to death and it is love you crucify
So who are you fighting if you are just fighting for
yourself
Where are your running if you are just running 'round
The role you are playing is playing you pretty well
You better wake up before you are a story which they
tell

Your reasons ain't reasons so don't get us wrong
Season by season you were holding us down
Don't come up with reasons, don't come along
We got one million reasons, one is blood on the ground
