

Reckless

Martina McBride

For stumbling through a mess of dances
For squandering my second chances
For wrecking every dream and breaking everything I've ever had Ooo, yeah

I'm reckless, and senseless
I've jumped off the fences
Abandon all the rules
And crashed like a fool
Out of control, so criminal
You could have let me drown
But you reached your hand out and
You met me in the fire
You fanned the flames up higher
Could have left me for dead
But you pulled me from the edge
For loving me
The way you do
I know I'm reckless
But you must be reckless too

For trusting me when I wasn't worth it
Forgiving me when I didn't deserve it
For looking in my eyes and seeing the soul inside
Crying, crying, crying

I'm reckless, and senseless
I've jumped off the fences
Abandon all the rules
And crashed like a fool
Out of control, so criminal
You could have let me drown
But you reached your hand out and
You met me in the fire
You fanned the flames up higher
Could have left me for dead
But you pulled me from the edge
For loving me
Like you do
I know I'm reckless
But you must be reckless too

Anyone else, would have run, run, run, run
Anyone else, would have been done, done, done, done
Anyone else, would've stepped on the gas and drove away so fast and put me i n the past
Cause baby

I'm reckless, and senseless
I've jumped off the fences
Abandon all the rules
And crashed like a fool
Out of control, so criminal
You could have let me drown
But you reached your hand out and
You met me in the fire
You fanned the flames up higher

Could have left me for dead
But you pulled me from the edge
For loving me
The way you do
I know I'm reckless
But you must be reckless too
