

A Tree In the Meadow

Marty Robbins

There's a tree in the meadow
With a stream that drifts by
And carved upon that tree I see
"I love you till I die"

I will always remember
The love in your eye
The day I carved upon that tree
"I love you till I die"

But further on down lovers' lane
A silhouette I see
I know you're kissing someone else
I wish that it were me

I will always remember
The love in your eye
The day I carved upon that tree
"I love you till I die"

But further on down lovers' lane
A silhouette I see
I know you're kissing someone else
I wish that it were me

I will always remember
The love in your eye
The day I carved upon that tree
"I love you till I die"
