

If Her Blue Eyes Don't Get You

Marty Robbins

If her blue eyes don't get ya oh, I'll bet ya
The sunshine of her smile sure will

With a twinkle of her eye she'll make you
Proud that you're livin'
And with her sunny smile you'll think
For a while you touched Heaven
There's no way to explain the feelin's
That you're gonna feel
If her blue eyes don't get ya oh, I'll bet ya
The sunshine of her smile sure will

She's not quite a Devil but still
She's no angel, I'll say
Sometimes she's both but I think
That's just to get her way
When she looks in your eyes and she smiles
Lord, you'll know you've been thrilled
If her blue eyes don't get ya oh, I'll bet ya
The sunshine of her smile sure will

She will tease you on
She can make you feel so strong
And with her touch she'll
Make your heart stand still, yes she will
And if her blue eyes don't get ya oh, I'll bet ya
The sunshine of her smile sure will
If her blue eyes don't get ya oh, I'll bet ya
