

If There's Still Another Mountain

Marty Robbins

Lord, if there's still another mountain
Another mountain yet to climb
Lord, if there's still another mountain
Don't make it quite as high this time

Lord, give me no more raging rivers
Give me a valley cool and green
Lord, if there has to be a river
Make it a calm and peaceful stream

And, Lord, if each mountain is only a test
Do ya mind if I stop for a moment and rest
And, Lord, let me look at the blue in the sky
And if I'm your child wipe these tears from my eyes

And if there's still another mountain
Another mountain yet to climb
Lord, if there's still another mountain
Don't make it quite as high this time

Don't make it quite as high this time
