

Say When

Marvin Gaye

Say when are you gonna come back home?
Can't you forgive this one who has done you wrong?
Well, I let temptation
Get the best of me
Now I'm sorry
I caused you misery
Say when, oh darling
Say when

I was swayed by a smile
And some loving charms
And like a fool, I was drawn
To another's arms
Blinded by her kisses
I couldn't see that with you
Was where I really wanted to be

So please say when Baby, say when

I know I acted just like
A selfish child
Taking all and giving none
All the while
But now I've grown up
And I want to prove I can
Love you more than any other man
So, please, forgive me
And say when
Oh, baby
I was wrong
Forgive me

I was swayed by a smile
Forgive me
Forgive me
