

Chosen Vessel

Marvin Sapp

I've made mistakes I thought
I'd never recover from
Some said I fell from grace
I just knew I was done
I felt discarded, abandoned and thrown away
But then God's love stepped in
Restored me to my place
He said

You are my chosen vessel
You are anointed for this season in time
What people rejected
I have accepted
I am with you, you are mine
You are mine

I've made mistakes I thought
I'd never recover from
Some said I fell from grace
I just knew I was done
I felt discarded, abandoned and thrown away
But then God's love stepped in
Restored me to my place
I heard him say

You are my chosen vessel
You are anointed for this season in time
What people rejected
I have accepted
I am with you, you are mine
You are mine

You are my chosen vessel
You are anointed for this season in time
What people rejected
I have accepted
I am with you, you are mine
You are mine

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are
Covered by love

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are
Covered by love

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are
Covered by love

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are

Covered by love

Use me
Use me
I'll be your vessel
Glory
Honor
I'll serve you with my whole life

Use me
Glory
Honor

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are
Covered by love

I'm so glad my past is
Under the blood
I'm so glad my sins are
Covered by love

You are my chosen vessel
You are anointed for this season in time
What people rejected
I have accepted
I am with you, you are mine
You are mine
