

Glory

Marvin Sapp

The winds blow and the trees they leave evidence
The sound in the atmosphere fault the birds to sing in harmony
As they do, flowers send up their fragrance
The grass, sea, sky
Beauty and splendor
The whole earth is full

The whole earth is full, full of His glory
And the nations resound when He speaks
The heavens declare the sound of the ages
And that sound is revealed within us

Mountains standing tall
Valleys laying low
Sun and moon and stars
All creation here below
Sovereign God, mighty God, Elohim who said let there be
And created me and now I can see
The whole earth is full

The whole earth is full, full of His glory
And the nations resound when He speaks
The heavens declare the sound of the ages
And that sound is revealed within us

Lord, release the sound
The sound of Your glory
The sound is revealed within, oh oh oh
Lord, release the sound of Your glory, glory
Bless the sound we make [?]
