

I Believe

Marvin Sapp

Lord I believe
I remember tha days, yes
I gave my heart to you Lord
You told me if I

Trust you
You would never Leave me

You said you'll always be there,
An even thou I've never seen your face
I know your presence is real.
You told me if I would

Seek you
I would always find
Find Cha
You're Just a prayer away, That's why I believe

I believe what you told me
Said again, I Believe
I believe
Your word is true
Your word is true
Said I Believe
I believe
In you promises
In you promises, yeah yeah
I believe yeah
I believe
That you'll come through
That you'll come through

You said you would never leave me ,Nor forsake me no.
If I keep my mind stayed on thee
You told me you would

Bless me
If I would live
For ya
You said you would supply my every need, that's why I believe
I believe what you told me
That's why I believe, All your word is true
Your word is true
Say it again, I Believe
I believe
In you promises
In you promises, yeah yeah
I believe yeah
I believe
That you'll come through
That you'll come through

You said you would keep me in Perfect peace
If I keep my mind stayed
Stayed on thee

You told me you would give me the desires of my heart, if I would Hearts desire
If you'd never lie
Never lie

I believe
I believe what you told me
Say it again, I Believe
I believe

Listen, Listen, Listen
There are going to be times in your life as a believer when you're going to question if God is really on your side. An the reason why you're questing it is because of the simple fact it seems like the devil is hitting you with everything he can possibly throw at cha. But you need to understand something below, you need to remember that the only reason why you are in that position now is because God has ordered your steps. An the only reason why the devil is hitting you like he's hitting you is because he has leisurely peeked into your future. An he sees what God is about to bring you into. That's why you can't depend on nothing but the word of God.

Your word is true
Your word
Is true
Is true
believe
believe, Hell come through, I believe

Said I believe in you
Your word is true
Said I believe in you
Is true
Said I believe in you
believe, Hell come through , I believe

Said I believe, Said I believe
I believe
Said I believe, Said I believe, Said I believe

Is there any body out there that believe in God any body out there that believe in God say any body out there that believe in God, any body out there that believe in God

I believe
I believe
I believe that you died
I believe
I believe that you rose
I believe
I believe that you're coming back
I believe
Said I believe in you
I believe !
