Relax

Relax
Relax
Relax

Sometimes it's up
Sometimes it's down
That's just the way life is
It'll turn around
I know it's difficult
Really tough right now
Don't be afraid to admit it
Thought about quitting
Checkin' on out

Pull yourself together
No don't you stop
Don't you stop
Keep your head don't be afraid
Don't matter what it looks like now
Know tomorrows on the way

I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright
I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright, be alright

Relax
Slow down take a minute, take a break
Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be alright

Relax
Pull yourself together
Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be alright

Just breathe
Stop stressin' out
He knows just what you need
Don't ever doubt
Stand firm
Be strong
I know
He'll see you through
Just rest it's working all out
You got more to do

Pull yourself together
No don't you stop
Don't you stop
Keep your head don't be afraid
No matter what it looks like now
Know tomorrow is on the way

I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright

But he told me everything will be alright, be alright

Relax
Everything's gonna be alright

Relax

Rest because everything's coming together
Open your heart and know love is on the way
Open your heart, know that love is on the way
Love will save the day

Relax
Slow down take a minute, take a break

I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright
I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright
I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright
I don't know everything
But he told me everything will be alright

If I relax
Everything's gonna be alright

Relax
Pull yourself together
Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be alright

Relax
