

Walking Each Other Home

Mary Gauthier

I'm just now getting round to letting go
But you had your suitcase packed a long time ago
The road got rough and you got ahead of me
I tried to pull you back, now I know you had to leave

We put each other through a world of hurt
Maybe that's the way it is on this side of the dirt
Nobody wants to be alone
I hope you're happy now, I heard you found someone

I don't know how this story's supposed to go
I don't know a lot of things that other people know
But it ain't about the money, ain't about who's right or wrong
We're all just walking each other home

Somewhere between Cain and Able, that's where we live
It's only human to take more than you give
To reach for a fix to fill you up
Take away the pain oh but that's not love

I don't know how this story's supposed to go
I don't know a lot of things that other people know
It ain't about the money ain't about who's right or wrong
We're all just walking each other home

Ain't for me to say what's bad or good In the end
I know we did the best we could

I don't know how this story's supposed to go
I don't know a lot of things that other people know
It ain't about the money ain't about who's right or wrong
We're all just walking each other home
