

Loving You is So Easy

Mary Hopkin

Loving you so easy
Like catching raindrops in my hand
Loving you so easy
I'm like a piper in the sand

I need you here forever
I need to hear you breathe
Your soft and silky words of love
Loving you so easy

Loving you so easy
Like hearing children learn to sing
Loving you so easy
Like watching winter change to spring

I need you here forever
I need to hear you breathe
Your soft and silky words of love
Loving you so easy

Nowhere I wouldn't fly to
If ever you should say
Nowhere I couldn't get to
If you should say

Loving you so easy
Like catching raindrops in my hand
Loving you so easy
I'm like a piper in the sand

Loving you so easy
Like hearing children learn to sing
Loving you so easy
Like watching winter change to spring

You've made me come alive again
You've given me my wings
I'm flying on the words you say
Loving you so easy
