

Enough

Mary J. Blige

Oh yeah (Ohh)

I don't care if it's hard on me
I'd rather be lonely, go
Why would you even do me like that
I know it's easy not to think about me
When you're away
Cause if you had me on your mind
You'd know that you won't never wanna hurt me

Now tell me why is it so typical
To let it go
Walk away for physical
Forget the love
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it
Tell me why is it so typical
To let it go
Walk away for physical
Forget the love
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it
Is it ever gonna be enough

I know the chase has got you feeling
Like you don't need me no more
It's got you so delusional
I know it's easy not to think about me when you're away
Cause if you had me on your mind you'd know
That you won't never hurt me

Now tell me why is it so typical
To let it go
Walk away for physical
Forget the love
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it
Now tell me why is it so typical
To let it go (Why you wanna let it go)
Walk away for physical
Forget the love (For physical)
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it (Dead wrong not to fight for it)
Is it ever gonna be enough

All the signs I ain't believe in
The seven to five years of cheating
Now my insides are bleeding
Cause there's so much deceiving
All the signs I ain't believe in
The seven to five years of cheating
Now my insides are bleeding
Cause there's so much deceiving

Tell me why is it so typical
To let it go (Why, why)
Walk away for physical

Forget the love (Always, forget the love)
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it (Dead wrong, dead wrong not to fight)
Tell me why is it so typical
To let it go
Walk away for physical
Forget the love
You can't see what you got at home
You're dead wrong not to fight for it
Is it ever gonna be enough
