

Good Together

Mary MacGregor

All the days are getting longer
And as the seasons change
We may question the reality
Of promises we've made

I'm not asking for forever
Or the sweet things you could say
It's because we're good together
That I'm asking you to stay

How can people pledge devotion
When no words ever mean the fire of emotion
Or the waking of a dream

I'm not asking for forever
Or the sweet things you could say
It's because we're good together
That I'm asking you to stay
It's because we're good together
That I'm asking you to stay

There are lovers for a lifetime
There are lovers full of pain
There are lonely people bound
By the words that were exchanged

I'm not asking for forever
Or the sweet things you could say
It's because we're good together
That I'm asking you to stay
It's because we're good together
That I'm asking you to stay
