

I Just Want To Love You

Mary MacGregor

Just as things look hopeful
You say there's nothing I can do
I'm not the one who took your heart
So I can't give it back to you
I'm not asking you to forget her touch
Or how she put your mind at ease
I'm hoping that won't mean so much
After spending time with me

Oh, I just want to love you
Like nobody's loved you before me
I just want to love you
Like no other woman can
Now, I know you're afraid
I'll take your love and run
But I swear to you I'll stay
I just want to take your loneliness away

I know in time your wounds will heal
And I hope when that day comes You'll look for someone you can turn to
And you'll see that I'm that one
But I can't pretend to have a way
To satisfy all your needs
I'll do everything that I can do
And I'll try my best to please

Oh, I just want to love you
Like nobody's loved you before me
I just want to love you
Like no other woman can
Now, I know you're afraid
I'll take your love and run
But I swear to you I'll stay
I just want to take your loneliness away

Oh, I just want to love you
Like nobody's loved you before me
I just want to love you
Like no other woman can
Now, I know you're afraid
I'll take your love and run
But I swear to you I'll stay
I just want to take your loneliness away

Oh, I just want to love you
Like nobody's loved you before me
I just want to love you
Like no other woman can
Now, I know you're afraid
I'll take your love and run
But I swear to you I'll stay...