Black tables, Hennessy, girls turn towards me
The owner paid them 2 hundred to make the men spend thousands

It's an emergency and I won't leave it alone
And the host is in her zone and she's raisin up a bottle (for me)
As long as drinks are full
They'll spend money on the women
And I know one thing for sure

They're not used to a Musician
Tapping feet all on the floor
Dancing fidgeting for more
Knowing every man is shallow
Hips and thighs make you vulnerable
