

Dirty Laundry

Mashonda

Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out, Airing the laundry out
So check my swag

You must think I'm a fool, creeping around till I saw you
Lying to me saying that's not true
You better believe me I'm through
Took some time up to myself
Ungrateful fool, don't need no one else
Can't believe chicks could be so weak
Must have forgot I just had your seat

It's my time to (it's my time)
It's my time to shake it off
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on

Ayo, we was all good when I used to play blind
But my eyesight started coming back over time
Got my mind right, focused on that new life line
My new rule "erase all of you, I'm fine"
No time for discussion, no more fucking, no more pick up
All the g's done trusting
DJs play this song you keep running it
Now I'm on my own and I'm loving it

Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on

I read all your emails and all your little details
The trips to brawls, the bags and all
But I'm shiting in between
I'm flying solo now, holding my head to the sky
If you feeling this, ladies wave your hands like this

It's my time to (it's my time)
It's my time to shake it off
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on (Ain't nothing but a hair flip)

Ha! So check out my swag
That's right you can catch me in my brag
In fact I'm the best you ever had
But I haven't saved my last for the last
(You digg)

Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
The life that I've been living
This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out

Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out

This is for the women, it's a new beginning moving on
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
Airing the laundry out, airing the laundry out
