

KING

Mashonda

This ain't healthy
The things you did to her
What you tryna do to me
I feel your pain
I see it in your eyes
The past is where you hide

Don't you know that
You're good with me, yeah
And you will never be ah, alone
Enough to learn this all by yourself

You're my, my, my
You're my, my, my
You're my king
Has no one ever told you?
That you're a king, yeah
A king

You're my, my, my
You're my, my, my
You're my king
Has no one ever told you?
That you're a kind, yeah, (a king)

When we're up you take us down
Our future is had to tell
You're better than you think
Can we communicate?

Don't you know that
You're good with me
And you will never be ah, alone
Enough to learn this all by your self

You're my, my, my
You're my, my, my
You're my king
Has no one ever told you?
That you're a king, yeah
A king

You're my, my, my, (you're my)
You're my, my, my
You're my king
Has no one ever told you?
That you're a king yeah, (king yeah)
A king

Has no ever told you
That you're a king, yeah
A king
(You're my, my, my)
(You're my)
(You're my, my, my)
