

No One Else

Mashonda

Baby, I've been sitting right here wondering
What you've been thinking
Where you've been? What you've been going through?
Why you don't love me the way I loved you
And then I cried my eyes to sleep
Not knowing why you do this to me
And now I'm lost, lost in the wind
Without your love, your sweet old love (love)

And so I want to continue to want you
And make you want me too (me too)
Cuz there's no one else that can't do the things I do (me too)
Baby, understand me (understand me)
That there's no one else for you and there's no one just for me (no one)

And so I tried to make things right
Every night, another fight
Afraid that God stays on my side
And keeps me strong for love prolong
What I would do to follow?
I've tried everything, but it's never enough
I give my all, try not to fall
Apart from you, you're all I want, so baby I

And so I want to continue to want you (I'm going to)
And make you want me too
Cuz there's no one else that can't do the things I do (continue to love you baby)
Baby, understand me
That there's no one else for you and there's no one just for me (no one, no one)
And so I want to continue to want you
And make you want me too (oh baby)
Cuz there's no one else that can't do the things I do
Baby, understand me (understand me)
That there's no one else for you and there's no one just for me (there's no one)

You gave me love (you gave me)
You brought me joy (you brought me)
And I'm not going to give up (I'm not gonna give up on you, boy)
You [?] on my darkest days (on my days)
And I'm won't let you get away (I'm won't let you get away)
You gave me love and brought me joy (you brought me)
And I'm not going to give up (I'm won't give up on you)
You [?] on my darkest days (I'm won't give up on you)
And I'm won't let you get away (And I'm never) (I won't let you get away)

And so I want to continue to want you
And make you want me too
Cuz there's no one else that can't do the things I do (there's no one that can't do)
Baby, understand me
That there's no one else for you and there's no one just for me

No one else, that can't do the things I do
