

Once Upon A Time

Mashy Muxx

Once upon a time I went downtown you would not believe fuckin' what I found as big as your dick, as hard as a rock there was what became my writer's block

I used all my power, I used all my skills
I went thru a great many nightmares and thrills
but finally I made it without fallin' dead
I moved that block inside my head

I'm starting to want it, I'm starting to to need it and I feel that fine forever, but I won't regret it never and e ver
I'm starting to want it, I'm starting to to need it and I feel that fine forever, but I won't give in Twice upon a time I went uptown but this time there was nothing to be found neither small nor big, neither cunt nor dick this K.M. story style, that's my favourite trick

I used all my power, I used all my skills
I went thru a great many nightmares and thrills
but finally I made it without fallin' dead
I kept that block inside my head

Say, how do you want it?
say, how you wanna need it?

I'm starting, starting to take it I'm starting, starting to break it once upon a time I should not have gone twice upon a time I could carry on
