I'm Free (at Last)

Masked Intruder

Used to be that I believed
The good was gone from my life
And it got so bad I almost had
A mind to end it outright

But now I see the light
I made it through the night
And it feels so good
To stand in the sunshine

Way back when, stuck in the pen
I suffered through the long days
Then, one day woke up like, holy fuck
Everything turned out ok

I can't say I'd kept faith
But I'm so stoked to say
That I wake up smiling
Every single day

I'm free, at last
I'm free, at last
My darkest days are all in the past
I'm free, at last

Now I see the light
I made it through the night
And it feels so good
To stand in the sunshine
In the sunshine

I'm free, at last
I'm free, at last
My darkest days are all in the past
I'm free, at last

I'm free, at last
I'm free, at last
I'm free, at last
I'm free, at last
