

Under the Mistletoe

Masked Intruder

Under the mistletoe, I waited all alone
Waited for you to come home and fork over all your kisses
I guess I should have known baby, that you'd never show
I hung my head down low and cried as it snowed this Christmas

Maybe you were on vacation visiting your family
Or out on the beach soaking up the sun way down in Waikiki
One thing I know for sure is that you weren't there for me
And it breaks my heart that you left me so lonely

Hope you had a merry Christmas, even though you left me here
With a still wrapped copy of love actually and a sixer of your favorite beer
Maybe next year you'll change your mind, I don't care if you're naughty or nice
I need you here so baby won't you meet me?

Under the mistletoe, where I waited all alone
Please don't be so cold, just come home for Christmas
Under the mistletoe, I can't bare to lose the hope
That kept me there as it snowed this Christmas

Under the mistletoe
Under the mistletoe
Under the mistletoe
Under the mistletoe
