

Clockwork

Masked Wolf

Tell me what's the situation
When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't stop ay whoa

When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't

Skydiving to the truth let's hear it all
No parachute it's going down
See right here our courthouse you know you know
Put it on the ropes like it's about to get KO'd
See we high beaming on the issue 'til it's all dead and gone

The pressure is motive I know that I'm cooking
I watch the degrees while I be floating
Angelic my symbol still hit you like cymbals
The way that I'm kitted it's like I'm the Joker
Or maybe like jokic or maybe I'm joking
I still be up like I'm promoted
Addressing the issues not enveloping
You waking the beast but I am not goated
Let me just air it see what I'm declaring
My levels too much to be compared with Coulda retired the way that I'm wired
I'm still making plays like I be coaching
Let me connect it yeah back to the chorus
See I do not sleep with problems inside
We can just air it and figure it out
Then straight back to business like we don't collide

When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't stop ay whoa

When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't

Skydiving to the truth let's hear it all
No parachute it's going down
See right here our courthouse you know you know
Put it on the ropes like it's about to get KO'd
See we high beaming on the issue 'til it's all dead and gone

I don't got time like it ain't a crime but y'all handcuff the problems to minds
All of this noise like wind to a chime just for some fame but you got no grind
Look for a seat but for this throne it's hard to beat its musical chairs
Ain't about weight it's more a speed reaction how much you can bare

What you give is not always reaped n many will know that life isn't fair
Clock always ticking so get to some living before your tomb is the only thing shared Hot like the climate forever I'm shining so when you look all you get is the glare

Swallow the pill or fight with you will but I ain't talking Prince Of Bel-Air uh

Tell me what's the situation
When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't stop ay whoa

When can square up like it's been cropped uh
The ball ain't ever been dropped
Like clockwork we don't
