

Hero

Masked Wolf

Add on like suppressor
Stacked like double-deckers
You saying cheese for cameras but I'm playing with my cheddar
I might of had to wait but I never say "never"
There's a reason that we great
There's a reason that our bread up

She knows she can do anything she wants and
He knows he can do anythings he wants
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall

Early mornings with the practice
Late nights no distractions
The grind forever real yeah my only interaction
With the ones that believed in me my dog
With the ones that said I could be what I want

This for mom and daddy
That helped me like caddy
This for every friend
That walked with me like a rally
This for everyone
That said the dream was too tragic
This for all the haters
Now guess who be laughing

Hello top of the morning ya
Hello the bank looking glorious
I don't usually boast but I'm a hustler
Yeah 50 said it man they hate it or they love ya

She knows she can do anything she wants and
He knows he can do anythings he wants
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall

She knows
She had to put that work in from beginnings
'Cause they talk about her body and never care for her feelings
She an object went through the process
Made a killing in her job now she a suspect
She a target to the ones that belittled here
Had a big breakdown 'cause she felt miniature
Fuck this is literature
Read it or weep it
If you don't say what you feeling then everything be a secret

She knows she can do anything she wants and
He knows he can do anythings he wants
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall

And he knows
There's a lot a people grinding like him
Kobe mentality but still couldn't find the win
Whether it's shooting hoops or 7 days hitting the gym

This was the life he chose this where the hero begins
Whether it's injuries that plagued him nerves kept racing
Wanna be the first draft pick no replacement
He still never gave up 4 AM wake-ups
Working in his sleep we call that a dream chaser uh

She knows she can do anything she wants and
He knows he can do anything he wants
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall

She knows she can do anything she wants and
He knows he can do anything he wants
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
There's a hero in us all even when we had to fall
