

Paper Planes

Masked Wolf

(They don't wanna see me fly, man)

I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
That's how you dodge the pain
I used to wake up thinking
I should go to sleep again
What I mean I'd fall before I flew
Just like paper planes
I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
That's how you dodge the pain
I used to wake up thinking
I should go to sleep again
What I mean I'd fall before I flew
Just like paper planes (Yeah)

Fuck it
They don't wanna know about it
There's so much shine indoor
But me, I feel like I was drowning
And what I gained, I lost
See I was back to nothing
I was cold like ice
See I was mighty ducking
Focus on cool whips, that new shit
Didn't know my sound
You want a tool tip? That fake shit
Ain't gonna make you proud
You can have a jet with no respect
And then you lost and found
I'm stupid with these facts
So let me dumb it down

I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
That's how you dodge the pain
I used to wake up thinking
I should go to sleep again
What I mean I'd fall before I flew
Just like paper planes
I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
That's how you dodge the pain
I should go to sleep again

Don't get me wrong, don't get me twisted
It took a long time before
I popped something like blisters
Only made a hit after I

Shot a lot of misses
Rather be rich in the heart
Than being rich in the business
That's word to Father Christmas
That's word to G.O.D
Man I'm blessed and I'm forgiving
But just because I ain't dead
Doesn't mean that I be living
Just 'cause I'm a villain
Doesn't mean I'm not evicted
There can be a mighty difference
I call that babysitting

I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
I should go to sleep again
I used to hate my days
Everything felt the same
I used to love going to sleep
I should go to sleep again
