

Cursive Prayers

Mason Jennings

Get into my car now, the sun is sinking down
We've got about an hour, let's leave the city
The monkey on my back's been going apeshit now
He's got his symbols out and they are crushing

Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't you cry, things work out
I just wanna love you now
Love you now

The wind is at your head, half out the window now
It's writing cursive prayers while you are laughing
Connection calls to me so I'll keep following
Your thread, it bother me, so I'll keep pulling, pulling

Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't you cry, things work out
I just wanna love you now
Love you now

I don't wanna kid your heart, I just wanna roll with you
Watch another page come true in our love story
We don't have to break our fall, baby let's just fall straight through Nothing hurts when I'm with you, there's no need to worry, oh

Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't you cry, things work out
I just wanna love you now
Love you now

Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't know why, don't know how
I just wanna love you now
Don't you cry, things work out
I just wanna love you now
Love you now
