

Dakota

Mason Jennings

I sorta met Dakota
Introduced by Minnesota
I just smiled

She was six feet tall
Said she hated these walls
Stepped outside for air

She wore a plain green dress
Said it was cold and it was best
We should be running

She kissed my ear and said, "My dear
Come see me soon
Naked I am stunning"

"When you do come
Bring your six-guns
Keep them loaded"
Said Dakota

"And when you do come
Bring your six-guns
And keep them loaded"
Said Dakota

She had something, oh my my
Make me jump high in the sky
I swear

She had something, yipee-kay-yay
Meaner than a dog that has no... hey!

She had something that made me sore
I did one who much much more than good luck

You can go and mark my words
Dakota drove a big black Ford pickup truck

"And when you do come
Bring your six-guns
Keep them loaded"
Said Dakota

"And when you do come
Bring your six-guns
Keep them loaded"
Said Dakota

I said one of these days
One of these days
One of these days
I will come, come