

Earth Is Homeless

Mason Jennings

The earth is homeless
The moon is clueless
The night is endless
And filled with fear
The sun is hopeless
The stars are mapless
They have no purpose
Without you here

The ceilings lower
The record's over
The walls are closer
The cracks are clear
The streets go backwards
To everafter
I'm just an actor
Without you here

Do you wanna be my little baby
Or do you wanna be my heaven true
I had a dream of happiness
I had a dream of you

The wind is aimless
The clock is famous
The [?]
The longest year
The phone is empty
The bottle's tempting
The fun is ending
Without you here
The fun is ending
With you here

Do you wanna be my little baby
Or do you wanna be my heaven true
I had a dream of happiness
I had a dream of you
I had a dream of happiness
I had a dream of you
