

Under Control

Mason Jennings

I've got a darkness you can't see
I've got a darkness inside me
Who knows where it may show
Where it comes from
Where it will go

I've got this darkness under control
It's getting better, I'm on a roll
But who knows when it may show
Where it comes from, where it will go

Baby yeah my heart was broke, I was dying
Until you gave me hope, I'm not lying
I saw you see me and it changed me
That somebody so heavy could really love me

I've known this all of my life
I've kept it back by shining my light
Who knows when it may grow
Where it comes from, or how deep it goes

Baby yeah my heart was broke, I was dying
Until you gave me hope, I'm not lying
I saw you see me, and it changed me
That somebody so heavy could really love me

Baby my heart was broke, I was dying
Until love gave me hope, there's no denying Darling I hope you know how much you mean to You're my one true home, you're my place to be
You're my one true home, you're my place to be
