

Servants of Discord

Massacre

Gather upon the blood drenched fields
Where bodies lie in rot
The cycle of death returns
As war starts yet again...

Resurrection of fallen bones
Army of darkness now arise
From the eternal spell cast
Awaken the perpetual dream
Defeat remains once again
The shadows have all been cast
The traitors now revealed

The usurped throne overturned
Crawl from the burning tombs
Set ablaze by lies in wait
Betrayers among the chosen
Serpents robbing graves

Resurrection of fallen bones
Army of darkness now arise
From the eternal spell cast
Awaken the perpetual dream
Defeat remains once again
The shadows have all been cast
The traitors now revealed
- servants of discord - destroyed! -

Crushing the epitaph
Of the false gods sepulcher
Break the horror vault
Let the worms slither forth!

Resurrection of fallen bones
Army of darkness now arise
From the eternal spell cast
Awaken the perpetual dream
Defeat remains once again
The shadows have all been cast
The traitors now revealed
- servants of discord - destroyed! -
