

Cool Like a Fox

Massive Wagons

Heard of a bloke who rides his own push bike
From Otley to Morecambe, yeah, you heard me right
And there's a woman I know, she's got 27 cats
She lets 'em come and go, how bloody ace is that?

Now I'm a man who knows a bit
I've been around the block and I've seen some shit
And when everything is going to pot
I think about the souls who give me hope
I give credit to the faces who helped me cope

'Cause I scream louder than anything you've heard before
I'm the voice of a hundred million more

There's a dude by me who refuses to stop
He'll fix your car, paint your house if he likes you a lot
He's a person who's a positive force for good
He wears a smile, jumps at parties, everyone's best bud

Positivity, a touch of verve
Crushed overconfidence spirit to serve
Down in one if you've got the nerve
Be a positive force for good in the world
You make a difference for me for what it's worth

'Cause I scream louder than anything you've heard before
I'm the voice of a hundred million more
'Cause I'm cool like a fox and I swoop like a seagull
Just be an opportunistic, charismatic [?]

'Cause I scream louder than anything you've heard before
I'm the voice of a hundred million more
'Cause I'm cool like a fox and I swoop like a seagull
Just be an opportunistic, charismatic [?]
