

Engulfed In Paranoia

Master

Imprisoned in a world of hate the exit maintained
Imploring can we all escape the heathen's meddling
All virtues they have been erased,
The suffering strengthened
They'll kill you just to seal your lips,
Stop that speaking

It's doubtful that we will survive the megalomaniac
If we are even still alive, born to suffer
All virtues they have been erased,
The suffering strengthened
They'll kill you just to seal your lips,
Stop that speaking

Engulfed in paranoia living in the dreams they taught you,
Nothing as it seems, the spells unbroken

It's doubtful that we will survive the megalomaniac
If we are even still alive, born to suffer
All virtues they have been erased,
The suffering strengthened
They'll kill you just to seal your lips,
Stop that speaking

Engulfed in paranoia living in the dreams they taught you,
Nothing as it seems, the spells unbroken

The pressure that's often applied
For reasons we're left to decide
Stuck in the human rat race is there a way to delay
Is there contemplation to live just one more day

Stand up and be counted,
If you dare to challenge the left or the right
Trapped in a social nightmare,
There is a reason, a reason to strike,
The sad injustice we all face in such a shameful way
Step aside you cowering fool if you can't take the pain

Engulfed in paranoia living in the dreams they taught you,
Nothing as it seems, the spells unbroken

Engulfed in paranoia living in the dreams they taught you,
Nothing as it seems, the spells unbroken
The spell is broken, the spell is broken,
Spoken word end the spell is broken!
